24-26th February 2012 Dublin

‘Movement and Music’

Keynote Speaker: Prof Salwa El-Shawan Castelo-Branco

Conscious that music, like musicians, can never stand still, this conference theme will explore issues of musical flows between places, spaces and generations. The conference theme is open to the exploration of:

- Migratory movements of people & transference of cultural traditions
- The musically inspired physical movements of the body
- The intercultural movement of musicians
- The movement of dancers, performers and audiences.
- The role of music & sound in social movements & political causes
- The structures of music itself: movement in time & space.
- The flow and dislocation of musical ideas, techniques & technologies

Conference conveners welcome submissions of 200 word abstracts from all relevant academic fields.

Sessions presentations will be 20 minutes long. Shorter postgraduate presentations of their work in progress may also be considered.

ICTM Ireland aims to include an even mix of research on Irish and non-Irish case studies.

Once again we particularly welcome short (10 minute max) video extract submissions, which will be shown between panel sessions.
